- IV. APPROVAL OF MINUTES – January 18, 2011

Commissioner Filardo made a motion to approve the minutes with the following corrections: Add “Excused Absence” for Irene Wolfe, and to not add the alternates to the “Roll Call”, since they are not required to attend all meetings. Commissioner Munsayac seconded the motion to approve the minutes with the corrections. All approved.

- V. WRITTEN COMMUNICATIONS
- VI. STAFF REPORTS

A. Supervisor’s Update

Program Coordinator Leary reported on the January Senior Activities Report and the update from the January meeting regarding Starbucks donations: the tally for January was 529 pastries, priced at approximately $2.00 each, equaling $1058.00; discounted at half price, equal $529.00. Also the total donation savings should be $9234.00 for YTD, not $58K as listed.

B. Manager’s Report

Manager Stavosky reported on the following: the Fremont Resource Center, on Capitol Avenue, will be hosting an “Open House” event on Friday March 11. The event is geared for Union City groups; and the Commissioners will be invited. This event will be serving a light breakfast, have a question and answer period, and a tour of the facility; the annual “Spring Egg Hunt” is scheduled for Saturday, April 23 at Kennedy Park at 9:00AM; the 10th St. Center has a preschool, park and playground programs, a boxing and tutoring program. The Center was filmed and aired on CNN; Camp sign up night is scheduled for Wednesday, March 23 from 6:00PM-8:00PM at Holly Center.

C. City Council Items Related to Leisure Services

Commissioner McNamara asked if previous funding would be restored to the RSC, and was told it was unsure yet if it would. Manager Stavosky also explained that the RDA funding may go away entirely and that this money comes from the State.

VII. ORAL COMMUNICATIONS (3 minutes)

VIII. COMMISSION MATTERS

Commissioner Filardo asked the other Commissioners to attend the March 11 "Open House" event at the Fremont Resource Center.

IX. GOOD OF THE ORDER

Commissioner Wolfe was welcomed back by all, as she was absent at last month's meeting. Chairperson McNamara would like to see more people at bingo; the St. Patrick's Day lunch will be on Wednesday March 16 at the RSC.

Commissioner Filardo said that the seniors at St. Anne's Church were treated to a Valentine's Day meal in their honor; this organization helps seniors with various needs throughout the community.

Commissioner Tai expressed her thanks to Helia Jackson for taking the minutes; she will be leaving the Leisure Dept and returning to the Finance Dept.

X. ADJOURNMENT

Chairperson McNamara adjourned the meeting at 3:05P.M. Next meeting on Tuesday, March 15, 2011.
